NOTICE. All persons not regular subscribers, who receive THE EXPRESS this week, will accept it with the understanding that it is PAID FOR until December 1, 1887. PUBLISHER.

Local and General.

Beautiful weather for hop picking. See market report at the head of this column. The circus was not elaborately patronized by Lebanonites. Steel rails for the Oregon Pacific are arriving at Yaquina and are being sent to the front. Mrs. J. H. Stine has been visiting her brother, Mr. H. C. Moran, at Sweet Home during this week.

On Monday next Louis F. M. Miller, leaves for St. Louis to attend the G. A. R. encampment. The State Fair offers for the best drilled military company, first premium $300; second, $200.

Hon. R. P. Earhart has been elected Secretary and Manager of the Northwest Fire and Marine Insurance Company.

Henry Harkness, accompanied by his little daughter, will depart for the East next Monday, to be absent for some time.

Mr. Samuel Carroll and family, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Lebanon and vicinity, have returned to their home in Crook county.

Mr. Frank Hendrickson has removed to the building next door to the barber shop, where he will be pleased to fit his customers neatly with boots or shoes.

THE EXPRESS was six months old last Monday. We simply make this announcement for the benefit of those who subscribed and paid for six months.

Geo. M. Clark, one of our patrons informs us that he has the finest vineyard in Linn county. He says he has twenty varieties of grapes, which this year will yield abundantly.

On Monday morning last C. B. Montague departed for Olympia, W. T. He will not doubt, have a pleasant time during his absence from the cares of his fastly increasing business.

We learn that the Mail service from this place to Sweet Home is to be changed. Instead of doubling the road, three times a week, Mr. Gibson will go up one day and return the next.

Mrs. G. W. Rice, in another column announces that she has just received a handsome invoice of millinery goods, consisting of the latest styles in hats, bonnets, trimmings, etc. See "ad."

B. H. Barker now occupies the building next to Hardy's jewelry store, in which will be found a pool table and shooting gallery. He will also keep on hand confectionery, cigars, tobacco, etc.

Mrs. Dr. Ballard and family, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Hackelman, departed Saturday morning last for Upper Soda, where they will undoubtedly have a pleasant time during these beautiful clear days.

Within one year twenty-two men in this country have shot their wives at night, under the impression that they were burglars. The wife who slips out of bed to go through her husband's pockets must do so at the peril of her life.

On Saturday last Mr. G. W. Sutton of Hamilton creek, called and left his name on our books for THE EXPRESS for one year. He tells us he built the first steamboat which plied the waters of the upper Willamette—the property of Capt. Bennett.

The spiritual campmeeting commenced at New Erayesterday. A large number of members and others will attend from this county, and a very interesting meeting is anticipated. Parties attending will pay full fare going and one-fifth returning.

Mr. H. Y. Gibson the mail contractor between Lebanon and Sweet Home has had a cover put on his back, and is otherwise improving his accommodations for winter travel. We are glad to know his business has been profitable during this summer.

G. W. Smith, Esq., of this place was kindly remembered by his father on his birth-day which occurred a few days ago. This kind old gentleman sent him one of the latest editions of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. A very fine present, indeed.

Jos. Nixon the retiring proprietor of the St. Charles hotel, leaves on Monday for the East. Mr. Nixon retires from business with the good wishes of many customers, and we hope he may enjoy a very pleasant time during his visit among eastern friends.

Rev. Mr. Gibney of the First Presbyterian church of this place, will address the people of Seio, on the subject of temperance on Friday evening next, September 23, and at Brownsville Tuesday evening, September 27th. We bespeak for him good audiences at both places.

On Monday next F. H. Roscoe and wife, will leave for the East, visiting relatives and friends in Iowa and Michigan. Mr. Roscoe will also purchase while in Eastern cities an extensive invoice of goods in the hardware line, in order to give customers the benefit of Eastern prices.

It was stated in San Francisco last week by President Crocker of the Southern Pacific that the California Oregon railroad would probably not be running trains through to Portland before December 1. Work is only fairly under way in the 1200-foot tunnel north of Coles in Siskiyou county.

On Saturday last Mrs. G. W. Sutton, of Hamilton creek, broke an egg she supposed an egg; but further investigation showed that there were two, as inside of the first shell was another ordinary sized egg, fully matured in every particular. Any person of scientific turn of mind can call at this office and find a subject worthy their attention.

On Monday next we school boy and girl of Lebanon will again take their respective seats for a nine months' term under the watchful eyes of Prof. Hunt, principal, and Miss Griggs, assistant. In another column will be found a card over the Professor's signature, which contains some suggestions which we think of importance to the welfare of every one interested in the success of our Public school work.

Never leave home in the morning without kissing your wife good-bye. If your wife doesn't happen to be in, then you should kiss the hired girl, just to keep your hand in.—Pencil on Tribune.

If the author of the above squib is a married man, he must have an unlimited amount of sand, or it may be he was laboring under an attack of temporary insanity when he wrote it. A majority of wives "awfully" object to their husbands kissing their hired girls "just to keep their hand in."

"Greater and grander than ever," is the way F. H. Roscoe & Co put it in their new "ad" this week. What is the use of paying $1 when you can be pleased with such an aggregation of curiosities at home for nothing. The menagerie comprises the handsomest specimens of animals known to the American continent. To Jo is no where. This is a show of the proprietors of which, are determined to run in the interest of the people, and it deserves a liberal patronage.

On Monday last we had the pleasure of meeting the Rev. Walter Skipworth, who will fill the M. E. pulpit of this place for the ensuing year. On his arrival here Mr. Skipworth finds an open-hearted congregation and the foundation laid for a very neat church edifice, which we hope will be speedily erected. Having stepped out of the editorial chair into the pulpit, we certainly entertain a fraternal friendship for Walton and bespeak for him and family a pleasant and successful mission among us.

"Around the World in a Chariot of Song."

The renowned "Singing Pilgrims", Phillip Phillips, will give three of his entertainments at Albany, September 20, 30, and October 1. His songs will be illustrated while being sung. Also pictures of his illuminated "Tour" around the world. His pictures or photographs of the scenes they represent colored by London artists and shown by the Royal Photo-Optician, under the most powerful light-light. Further particulars next week.

Under a New Management.

Yesterday, after dinner Mr. H. Parrish of Rock Hill, this county a gentleman well and favorably known, and who will run a first class house in every respect, took charge of the St. Charles hotel. We do not hesitate to say to those who will patronize the St. Charles that they will be courteously treated, and that the accommodations will be second to no house in this part of the valley. Mr. Parrish takes the house with the best wishes of a host of friends and we predict for him a prosperous business.

Read This Boys.

Here is a fact that is worth pasting in the hat of every boy in the land: Out of twenty young men who competed for a West Point cadetship at Westfield, Mass., ten were rejected by the physician because they had "the tobacco heart" brought on by cigarette smoking. They were unfit for West Point service. And a youth with "tobacco heart" is unfit for any occupation which requires persistent, steady effort. To put in "other" he is fit for no real use in this busy world of ours, and the sooner he goes to his grave the better it is for him and humanity in general.

Got a Job at Last.

"Lish" Applegate has been heard from once more. He announces his intention to take the field against the amendment; against the homes, against the families, and in favor of whisky. Well, poor Lish; he has always been a brilliant failure in everything that he ever undertook. In fact he seems to have been a mere accident himself, and his whole life a huge mistake. So it is not at all strange that now, in his old days, he should hire himself out to the whisky interest, to help bring the homes of Oregon, and try to assist in continuing that cause of all curses, the saloon, upon this otherwise beautiful state.—Sentry.

A Sweeping Reduction.

The Oregon Pacific Railroad Co. and the Oregon Development Co., have made a sweeping reduction in passenger fares between Albany and Corvallis and San Francisco, taking effect September 15th. First class fares have been placed at $10.75 and storage $8.00. They have also placed on their first class round trip tickets at $19.50 each. The above rates are exceeding low, lower than any one expected to see for many years yet; and the fact that the reduction is not made because of pressure of any kind is only another indication of the intention of these companies to give the people the very cheapest rates possible, and to fully merit the proud title of the "Peoples Line."

To the Patrons and Friends of the Lebanon Public Schools.

The success and usefulness of a school is greatly dependent upon the support and co-operation of its patrons. Parents should take a deep interest in their school, as it concerns their children's physical, mental and moral welfare. You can show this interest by sending your children to school regularly and punctually, by talking with them about their studies and lessons, by frequently visiting the schools and commending all worthy effort on the part of pupils or teachers. I would earnestly request your co-operation for the coming school year. Yours Respectfully, CHAS. S. HURT, Principal.

Every house keeper should read the "ad" of Ralston Cox, The Peoples' Grocer. It is money in your pocket.

SOME TIMELY SUGGESTIONS.

Editor of THE EXPRESS:—I desire to say a few words of encouragement to the women of Oregon through your valuable Prohibition paper. Coming from the State of Iowa where prohibition has been so successfully tried the last few years, the question is very frequently asked, "Does prohibition prohibit?" Yes, it most certainly does. We have to-day in Iowa a more quiet and law abiding citizenship than we had before, as proven by the testimony of one of our leading judges who said that only about one-tenth as many cases wherein men committed crimes and misdemeanors while under the influence of liquor came up for punishment as existed before the amendment.

Haddock, Iowa's martyred temperance minister, died not in vain. Soix City where the awful tragedy was enacted has closed its lated saloons and great revolution is attended with bloodshed even this grand temperance revolution of the nineteenth century could not escape it, and precious lives have been lost in the struggle. And although to accomplish the end it may cost you much, the most with his black nightgown free whisky has cost you more. What will the future bring you if you fail? You have the sympathy of all the earnest temperance people of the land. Will prohibition carry in Oregon? Is one of the leading questions of the day. And now I will make a suggestion that may help you in the eventful hour to still win votes for the amendment.

In Iowa in many of the cities and towns the women assembled upon the day of election and erected stands or booths where they gave dinner at any hour of the day to the voters of the place. Good coffee, tea and best of all good cold water, were so speak at every voter's elbow and plenty of good vittals, too. For the old adage will hold good that "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." And when the coffee and tea were behind served many were the kind counsels given in season by those earnest women. "For God and Home and Native Land." Few men will pass a dinner table arranged with evergreens, temperance notices, flowers and the dear old "Flag of the Union," where good cheer and good will prevail, and where money and without price, to visit a saloon or eat his vote contrary to the popular sentiment of the day. How many of our men will pass a dinner table arranged with evergreens, temperance notices, flowers and the dear old "Flag of the Union," where good cheer and good will prevail, and where money and without price, to visit a saloon or eat his vote contrary to the popular sentiment of the day. DIED.

JOHN—In Lebanon, Linn county, Oregon, on Thursday evening, September 8, 1887, of pneumonia, JAMES H. JOHNSON, aged 50 years. He was the son of Mr. J. and Mrs. C. H. JOHNSON. Another devoted son tender for this world, has been added to the wreath of the little ones in the cemetery of immortality. The remains of little PANSY were quietly laid to rest in the Lebanon cemetery on Friday afternoon in the presence of many sympathizing friends of the bereaved parents.

In Memory Of

ARCHIE, infant son of S. and M. R. Reynolds, who died August 20, 1887, aged 4 years. One more loved one sweetly sleeping. Dear little Archie gone forever. And if I should see you in the future, I would tell you that I still think of you on the other shore.

Yes, we know he is no longer here. With the best blessing I can give, I bid him adieu to this world. But how sad it is to sever hearts that were so well joined. Open in the eve we'll gather 'round the fireside cheer and love, Thinking of the loved one's now gone home.

One by one the leaves are falling, Falling, falling day by day. And in silence heaven is calling, Calling for the loved one's now gone home. One more loved one sweetly sleeping. Our darling boy gone before. Yet we will meet him at the meeting. Bye and bye to part no more.

Sauvian Academy.

The fall and winter term of this favorite institution of learning will commence on Monday September 20, 1887, and close March 23, 1888. As in the past it will be under the efficient management of Prof. J. L. Gilbert, principal, with Miss H. B. Gilbert, teacher of music. It is very important that pupils should begin with the school term if possible. Those who intend to become members of the school, but cannot present the first of the term, should send their names on or before the 20th of September. Arrangements have been made for the very best advantages to those desiring special instruction in drawing, painting, elocution and penmanship. Classes will be made the control and instruction of competent, successful teachers who have made a specialty of teaching these branches. Instruction in the principles of vocal music given to all the members of the school.

The reputation of the Sauvian Academy as a first-class institution of learning, for excellent government, is well known, and the fact that there have been no cases of insubordination, expulsion, or punishment in the school during the past three years, is a most excellent record and should be favorably considered by those who desire instruction in the higher branches of education.

Ralston Cox, The Peoples' Grocer, has a new "ad" in this week's issue. This house has built up a reputation for selling the best goods at the least money, and for fair square dealing generally, where they gave dinner at any hour of the day to the voters of the place. C. B. MONTAGUE'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

The Pay As You Go System. It is no unusual thing for close buyers, commercial men and other shrewd to Lebanon, to receive that Montague is doing more business than all the others in the town. This may or may not be the case, but one thing is certain he has demonstrated beyond the possibility of doubt the practicability of doing a first-class business on a "pay as you go" basis. With the money in hand to purchase his goods, he can and does buy at the lowest rates that merchants who buy on time. He carries the largest discounts given at the trade. His expenses are at the very minimum possible in the conduct of his large business, and he can and does offer goods to his patrons at lower rates than any other business house in Linn county.

Now that money is becoming more plentiful, many new buyers visit his mammoth establishment daily who express admiration at his immense stock and low prices.

Remember that we pay the highest price for merchantable produce and exchange merchandise for the same at our cash prices. Be wise in your generation and buy all your supplies of Montague.

Our line of glove named goods embracing fancy neck wear, standard white shirts, fancy floral shirts, silk parkies, etc., in fact, everything pertaining to this department, such as those of the Board of Health, Buck gloves for harvest and all other goods in our line, are more complete than ever before.

Our Dress Goods Department, in fall and winter styles is very complete, and is offered at from 10 to 25 cent below than other establishments sell the same class of goods.

We are overstocked in some lines and will sell them until closed out, regardless of cost. The larger goods are placed on a separate counter, and you can have them at your own price.

Fall Stock.

Montague's fall stock is now complete in every department. He cordially invites those who wish to get the worth of their money to inspect his goods and prices before buying elsewhere.

The boot and shoe department is full and complete. We are carrying complete lines of the "Boat" for men and boys as well as ladies, misses and children's shoes manufactured on the Pacific coast. In addition to his large stock Montague is opening up this week an invoice of fifteen cases of the justly famous C. M. Henderson & Co's boots and shoes, including several dozens of the famous Rockford III, make, which is the best that comes to this market. Silk and linen hankers, cuffs, hosiery, plain underwear, collars and cuffs in children's and men's.

We have an elegant line in gents furnishing goods as we always do for the fall trade, such as fancy neck wear for the young men, suspenders in all colors from $2.00. One-half hose of the famous Rockford III, make, which is the best that comes to this market. Silk and linen hankers, cuffs, hosiery, plain underwear, collars and cuffs in children's and men's.

and children's clothing. It is now conceded that Montague keeps the only general assortment of clothing in town. He has a mammoth stock to select from. As with his other merchandise this clothing was bought very low for cash and is now placed on sale at prices that defy competition. The great number of men, boys and children fitted out in complete suits at Montague's mammoth establishment within the past week will bear testimony to the fact that he has his competitors in this town in the clothing line worthy of the name.

Save your hard earned money by invariably buying at Montague's.

Lower Prices Than Ever.

Montague is adding largely to his stock and is now better prepared than ever before to furnish the people of Lebanon and vicinity with the very choicest selections of general merchandise at lower prices than ever. He buys his stock exclusively for cash, getting the benefit of the lowest prices and large discounts. He is satisfied with a very moderate profit on these purchases, and as he does not propose wasting the time of himself or his clerks in figuring up losses and grieving over what is unfortunately, credit giving concerns are compelled to do, he can devote a few spare minutes occasionally to lay the whole matter before the public in order that they may take advantage of the golden opportunity to buy their supplies at the very lowest rates possible. Ponder these facts well and then walk into his store, note the customers buying, the prices they are paying and if there is any reason or judgment in you, you will go away well satisfied.

Crockery Department.

Our new line of crockery has arrived and is ready for sale; this is something new, ladies, come in and see it.

Grocery Department.

The prettiest thing yet in baking powder prices is the triple jaff glassware that we are giving away with our silver star baking powder; a piece with each can.

I expect every old note and account due me fully settled not later than October 1st. I have waited long enough and never have had a note. Do not wait for special duns but come in and settle. I abhor the idea of making costs on any one, but desire those indebted to make a note. BUSINESS IS BLISS.
